Editor in Chief: J.M. Sands

Impact Factor: 4.354

The American Journal of Physiology-Renal Physiology covers all areas of renal physiology, including:

- Original, innovative research on the kidney, urinary tract, and their respective cells and vasculature
- Thought-provoking investigations involving human and animal models, individual cell types, and isolated membrane systems
- Cross-disciplinary papers on the pathophysiological basis of disease processes in the kidney, the urinary tract, and in the regulation of body fluids
- Timely editorial reviews

Authors are required to submit papers online at www.apscentral.org.

Special Features Include:

- Sign-up for e-mail notification of advance tables of contents
- Fully searchable text, including PubMed
- Rich color and sharp resolution of figures
- Editor's Home Page: www.the-aps.org/publications/ajprenal
- Articles in Press: Accepted research papers are now published online within a few days after their acceptance.
- Perpetual/Electronic Archiving: The LOCKSS system preserves the electronic content of all APS journals.

Special APS Member Benefits:

- FREE Online Access to 15 APS Journals and APS Journal Legacy Content: Members of the American Physiological Society (APS) receive FREE online access to both the current content and legacy content (going back as far as 100 years for some journals) of these APS research journals (this free online access includes AJP-Renal Physiology).
- FREE Color Figures: Regular and Student Members of APS who are first or last authors receive FREE scientifically necessary color figures in all APS journals.

Under the NIH Public Access Policy, NIH is asking its funded investigators to voluntarily submit to PubMed Central (PMC) the author's final manuscript of articles resulting from research supported in whole or in part with direct costs from NIH. According to the NIH, this policy applies only to manuscripts accepted for publication on or after May 2, 2005.

If you choose to submit your accepted manuscript to PMC, you will be asked to indicate when that manuscript should be made available to the public. As copyright holder of your article, the APS has the sole right to publish or disseminate it. However, the APS grants you permission to allow public release of your manuscript through PMC 12 months after publication in the print version of an APS journal. This period of time is consistent with our existing policy to make all content publicly available through HighWire Press 12 months after print publication. NIH will be able to determine when 12 months have elapsed because APS sends NIH electronic feeds of the article metadata upon publication in a journal issue. Therefore, you can submit your accepted manuscript to PMC at the time of acceptance to an APS journal, and will not have to calculate or track time elapsed from publication.

NIH intends to use the PMC database of manuscripts for portfolio management; to create a permanent archive of articles based upon NIH-funded research; and to give the public access to research publications. In announcing this policy, NIH officials underscored that it is voluntary and there will be no sanctions of any kind against authors who do not submit their manuscripts. If you have any questions with respect to the NIH Public Access Policy and the publication of your article in an APS journal, please contact Margaret Reich at mreich@the-aps.org.
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

for the Chair of the Book Advisory Committee

Nominations are invited for the Chair of the Book Advisory Committee, a sub-committee of the Publications Committee, to start a 3-year term, renewable once, on January 1, 2007. The Publications Committee plans to interview candidates in the Fall of 2006.

The Chair of the Book Advisory Committee will be expected to recruit a Committee of four to six members who have an interest in maintaining and strengthening the APS’s book program, including its well-known Handbook Series. All APS books are published jointly with a commercial publisher who bears all production costs and pays royalties under a contractual arrangement with APS.

Duties of the Book Advisory Committee are to:

- Identify, in consultation with the publisher and experts in the field, topics and authors and/or chief editors for books, both print and online.

- Ensure timely production of books.

- Propose topics and authors/editors via committee discussion, solicitation of outside experts, and the copublisher.

- Develop rationale and need for proposed books.

- Nominate potential book editors for appointment by the Publications Committee.

- Approve the outlines and individual authors recommended by the chief editors, who will extend the invitation; and maintain close communication with the editor on the progress of each book.

- Assist the editor in holding authors to deadlines.

- Review unsolicited book proposals sent to the APS.

- Meet annually at the APS Headquarters in Bethesda, the EB meeting, or through conference calls. A representative of the copublisher is invited to attend.

- Maintain close communication with the Director of Publications.

- Present an annual written progress report to the Publications Committee.

Applications should be received before September 15, 2006.

Nominations, accompanied by a curriculum vitae, should be sent to the Chair of the Publications Committee:

Kim E. Barrett, Ph.D.
American Physiological Society
9650 Rockville Pike
Bethesda, MD 20814

Or as an email to mreich@the-aps.org

THE APS JOURNAL LEGACY CONTENT is an “online package” of over 100 years of historical scientific research from the American Physiological Society's (APS) 14 research journals. • It can be purchased separately at a one-time charge for perpetual use. This Legacy Content is FREE to APS Members ($2,000 for nonmembers). • It is a separate program from the Subscription Program in that you pay once for the perpetual access to the online content from all APS journals from 1898 to 1996-1998, depending on the journal (see chart below). This content goes back to the first issue of each of the APS journals—including the American Journal of Physiology, first published in 1898. This legacy content can be viewed as completely searchable scanned images of the printed pages.

Journal Title | Legacy Content Dates
---|---
Journal of Neurophysiology | Jan 1938 - Dec 1996
American Journal of Physiology (AJP) | Jan 1898 - Dec 1976
AJP-Cell Physiology | Jan 1977 - Sept 1997
AJP-Endocrinology & Metabolism | Jan 1977 - Sept 1997
AJP-Gastrointestinal & Liver Physiology | Jan 1980 - Sept 1997
AJP-Heart & Circulatory Physiology | Jan 1977 - Sept 1997
AJP-Regulatory, Integrative & Comparative Physiology | Jan 1977 - Sept 1997
AJP-Renal Physiology | Jan 1977 - Sept 1997
Advances in Physiology Education | June 1989 - Nov 1997
Physiological Reviews | Jan 1921 - Dec 1997
News in Physiological Sciences | Jan 1986 - Jan 1998
Physiological Genomics | Not applicable because first published in 1999
